We, the committee appointed to visit John T. Wilbur on account of his marrying contrary to the order of our society, report — that we have had an interview with him, in which he expressed his attachment to the principles of the society, and a desire to retain his right of membership therein. He further said that such was the desire of his wife, and that it was also her choice that he should continue to attend the meetings of Friends, which he said he felt it his duty to do. We are therefore favorable to his being continued a member.
